

A Literary Leap: DPS Sushant Lok-Gurugram Rises to the Top at the National Young Authors' Fair 2024–25

Ranked #1 among the Top 10 Literary Leaders

The young wordsmiths of Delhi Public School Sushant Lok-Gurugram earned accolades across multiple competitive echelons—National, State, City, and School level—at the National Young Authors' Fair, an esteemed initiative by Bri Books.

Their compelling and innovative narratives left an indelible imprint on India's literary landscape. Through this platform, students embarked on a transformative journey to write, publish, and gain national and global recognition.

It was a true confluence of ideas and words across our Senior, Middle and Primary Wing, where the students' penned stories that echoed with real and raw emotions.
